

KILGORIS MUNICIPALITY STAFF

Erastus Sila Mutuku Bachelor's Degree, Urban and Regional Planning: Institution: Maseno University & Master's Degree in Urban Management from Berlin Technical University

Mutuku is a seasoned Planner with 18 years of progressive expertise in urban planning and management in the field of Urban and regional development, Strategic urban management, Sustainable city planning & Policy formulation and implementation

Mutuku Coordinates Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP II). Kilgoris Municipality.

Emmanuel Koisiala Ole Reiya holds Bachelor's Degree in Civil and Structural from University of Eldoret and a member of Engineers Board of Kenya Reg. no. B20113

Emmanuel is an expertise in the field of Civil and Structural Engineering, particularly in road construction and infrastructure development, Road design and construction, Structural analysis and project management, Quality control compliance with engineering standards and Site supervision and contractor coordination. A member of Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP II). Kilgoris Municipality.

Isaac Saningo Maatany is a holder of Bachelor of Science. A Human Resource professional with over three years of experience in public service.

Isaac brings a combination of academic knowledge and practical expertise in handling HR functions, promoting organizational efficiency, and fostering a productive workplace and a member of CPCT Narok coordinating Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP 11).

Milicent Soiyan Sasai: A Diploma holder in Supply Chain Management and professional background in procurement planning and management. She has played vital role in CPCT Narok coordinating Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP2).

Kipronoh Evans Cheruiyot: Urban and Regional Planner with Bachelor of Built Environment in Urban and Regional Planning. A dedicated Planner with a strong academic background and a passion for sustainable development, spatial planning, and infrastructure design. Skilled in urban policy analysis, GIS mapping, and stakeholder engagement to create well-structured and sustainable Urban Spaces.

Evans has played vital role in CPCT Narok coordinating Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP2).

Samwel Lesalon Sitany holds a Diploma in Social Work from Maasai Mara University years of work experience both in county government and Non - governmental organizations as a social worker.

Lesalon's has demonstrated commitment to enhancing community welfare and supporting sustainable development initiatives in Narok County. He is also a member of CPCT Narok coordinating Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSp II)

Nchoe Stella Resiatio Environmentalist and Environmental Impact Assessment Expert Reg No 12190 and a member of Environment Institute of Kenya. She holds a Bachelor of Environmental Studies (Science): University of Eldoret

Stella has over 5 years of expertise in Environmental Studies (Science) and She is a registered environmental and social impact assessment expert with NEMA and a member of EIK. A member of CPCT Narok coordinating Kenya Urban Support Program (KUSP2)

Joseph Munkushi Nkoirien holds a Degree in Finance and Banking, KATC finalist and he is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA-K)

Joseph has experience in handling financial transactions, invoice processing, and validation within the IFMIS platform. Revenue Section (Accounting Work): Preparation of cashbooks

Bank reconciliation for all financial accounts
General financial reporting and accounting tasks